LGAA Annual Members Juried Show – 2010

November 4 - December 2

2010 JUROR

Jeff Bramschreiber

Currently a Board Trustee and Pastel Instructor at the Triton Museum of Art, Community Arts Liaison and Assistant Manager for University Art Center of San Jose, Treasurer and Board Trustee for Silicon Valley Open Studios, and Lecturer / Workshop Artist in Egyptian Art for the Rosicrucian Egyptian Museum.

Whether he's painting a landscape, a still life, a portrait, paper batik, or a wildlife piece, the love for what Jeff Bramschreiber is painting is clearly evident. While he specializes in pastel painting, he has command of several other mediums including watercolor, acrylic, oil, pen and ink, pencil, charcoal and airbrush! Whatever the medium, Jeff communicates with rich mixtures of believable colors and thorough knowledge of his subject to create a realistic third dimension, and an emotional atmosphere in his artwork.

You are not an idle spectator when you look at Jeff's work, you are there, seeing and feeling the things the artist felt. As George Rivera, Executive Director of the Triton Museum of Art puts it, "When you look at Jeff's art you are drawn in from across the room, and when you arrive, you see that there is more to discover, more going on than what the subject matter betrays."

Mr. Bramschreiber has been painting for nearly thirty years, has won numerous awards for his work, and his paintings hang in several private collections throughout the United States. Jeff has also donated his work and his time to various private organizations, arts organizations, schools and museums, in support of their educational programs and fundraisers.
